REPERTORY DANCE THEATRE 2008 - 2009 SEASON

Stories of Myths & Heroes continue to guide us as we embark on our forty-third season at Repertory Dance Theatre. "Myth is the hidden part of every story, the buried part, the region that is still unexplored because there are as yet no words to enable us to get there." (Italo Calvino) We hope you'll join us for every memorable moment in these four extraordinary concerts.

THE MESSENGERS

RDT presents Mythical Hunters, a masterpiece by internationally revered choreographer Glen Tetley (performed with guest artists from Ballet West) with Castor and Pollux, Elizabeth Waters' movement ritual inspired by the mythical twin stars. Castor and Pollux features live music by PARTCH – performing maverick composer Harry Partch's weird and wonderful score performed on instruments of his own invention. Plus, the athletic and exuberant Springs, by New York's rising star Andrea Miller.

CHAIRS

"A rare, perfectly formed work of art" (Salt Lake Tribune) RDT reprises Zvi Gotheiner's beloved Chairs, his fierce and haunting work for nine dancers and nine chairs in the intimacy of the Rose's Black Box Theatre. Called "flawless", "visually stunning", and "beautifully shaped", the solos, duets and quartets in Chairs reveal the full spectrum of human emotion and experience. Buoyant, bold, and ultimately breathtaking, Chairs mirrors modern life with exquisite empathy.
